

Saturday, 4th August 2007

EUIJ - University of Air Joint Symposium

The EU of the 21st Century - Light and shadow of EU enlargement

Venue: Hitotsubashi University, Mercury Tower 7th Floor, Conference Room

Hitotsubashi University Campus map:

<http://www.hit-u.ac.jp/guide/campus/e-campus/index.html>

Registration:

This symposium is open to University of Air students, EUIJ Tokyo Consortium students and the general public. No fees are required. Applications will be processed on first-come-first-served basis. Please apply to the EUIJ Office(euij-tokyo@ad.hit-u.ac.jp) with your name and vocation.

Session 1: 11:00-12:00

Opening Remark:

The Delegation of the European Commission to Japan

Keynote Speech:

Prof Francesco Passarelli, (Bocconi University)

'The Enlargement of the EU: institutional reforms and constitutional negotiations'

Lunch: 12:00-13:00

Session 2: 13:00-13:45

Prof Yasuo Kashiwakura , (University of Air, vice-President)

Session 3: 13:45-14:30

Prof Eiji Ogawa (Hitotsubashi University)

'From the Introduction of Euro to the Enlargement of Euro Area

Coffee Break

Session 4: 14:45-15:30

Prof Yumiko Nakanishi (Senshu University),
'EU Enlargement and Accession Conditions'

Session 5: 15:30-16:15

Prof Takako Ueta (International Christian University),
The Future of Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP): The Impact of Eastward Enlargement, and the New Reform Treaty

Coffee Break

Roundtable: 16:30-17:45

Speakers and Chairperson

Closing Remark:

Prof Takayuki Kimura (International Christian University, former Ambassador to EU)